WATERLOO COUNTY, IOWA.

To Prosser Degeant Waterloo, July 27th 1866

You are hereby notified that you have been appointed a Commissioner to view, and if required, to locate, a

County Road, petitioned for by W. A. Rome and others.

Said Road

petitioned for, is to commence at the No 18 Cor Sec 36 R 88 Range No 14 and running thence west or *see line & intersect the Road known as the Hall Road in said town*You will, therefore, appear at the Office of the Sheriff of said County, at the place and time specified, to view, and if required, to locate, the said Road, and proceed immediately to the discharge of your duty and make your report thereon according to law and the following Instructions: ~~on or before~~

~~the next time of this Court:~~

1. In your survey of this Road you will particularly describe the point of commencement, with reference to some monument record, which will generally be found to consist of corners in the public and private surveys; the exact course and distance from some one of which, you must give in your field notes.
2. You must also measure to, and in your field notes return the distance to some section or quarter section corner, from the point where you intersect each and every line of sections in the public surveys.
3. The point at which you terminate your survey must be ascertained and returned by reference to the same evidence as is herein required for the commencing point.
4. All letters and figures inscribed upon wood must be cut with a "marking iron," similar to that used in the government survey of lands.
5. Where bearing trees are taken, (and it is strongly enjoined that, if within ten chains of an angle, they should without fail be taken,) a smooth face fronting the angle of the Road, should be made as near the ground as practicable, and in this face should be cut the initial letters of the points of beginning and ending of the Road. For example, a Road from Dubuque to Cascade: D. & C. R. When bearing trees cannot be had at angles, it is recommended that the bearing and distance to a boulder, stone, or corner of an enclosure be taken, and where this is impracticable, a large mound of earth should be raised at the point of the angle.
6. Marks in timber will consist of a smooth blaze with a notch in the center, except those trees which the line cuts, each of which must have three notches, both upon the side which the line strikes and that upon which it leaves the tree.
7. After completing your survey of this Road you must carefully protect the same upon paper, with a view to the detection of all errors, either in your chaining or course.
8. Before commencing your survey you must compare and adjust your chain to a standard kept for that purpose, in this office.
9. These Instructions in no way relieve you from each and every duty prescribed by the Code of Iowa, pages 91 and 92.
10. Your compass must be adjusted to run upon the true medium; that is, the true magnetic variation only must be employed, and this must invariably be stated, and all changes, as a part of the field notes of this survey.

1. In your survey of this road you will particularly describe the point of commencement, with reference to some prominent record, which will be generally found to consist of corners in the public and private surveys; the exact course and distance from some one of which you must give in your field notes.
2. The point at which you terminate your survey must be ascertained and returned by reference to the same evidence as is herein required for the commencing point.
3. All letters and figures inscribed upon wood, must be cut with a "man kind pen," similar to that used in the Government survey of lands.
4. Where bearing trees are taken, (and it is strongly enjoined that, if within ten chains of an angle, they should without fail be taken,) a smooth tree fronting the angle of the road, should be made its near the E. end as far as practicable, and in this case should be cut the initial letters of the points of beginning and ending of the road. For example:—a road from Delhi to Cory—D. & C. H. W. In bearing trees cannot be had at angles, it is recommended the bearing and distance to a boundary, either, or corner of an enclosure be taken, and where this is impracticable, a large mound of earth should be raised at the point of the angle.
5. Marks in timber will consist of a smooth "blaze" with a notch in the centre, except the trees with the line cuts, each of which must have three notches, both upon the side which the line strikes, and that upon which it leaves such trees. All posts must be set up at every mile, and the distance marked thereon.
6. After completing your survey of this road, you must carefully protect the same upon paper, with a view to the detection of all errors, either in your chaining or course.
7. These instructions in no way relieve you from each and every duty prescribed by the laws of Iowa Revision of 1850, pages 134 and 135.
8. All your assistants are required to be sworn by some person authorized to administer oaths.
