D. W. Foote,

County Auditor.

Jessup Town Nov 22/90
Auditor Houti-Waterloo Ga.

Will you kindly inform me if there has been any action taken, or is likely to be taken, on the road through section 36 in Barclay Township—

I saw a Waterloo man looking over the ground on the line of the Road to-day and it occurred to me that some action might have been taken or contemplated concerning it—Please excuse the liberty I take in asking this favor but this is a matter of very grave importance to me as I wish to build a house and other farm buildings on my place on the line of this Road in the spring over and it will be a matter of great disappointment and serious loss to me if the Road is not fully opened and made passable in the near future.

In fact a failure to have the use of the Road will make my land ^{practically} valueless. Trusting that you will understand all this and inform me as to what (if anything) is being done with reference to the Road. I remain

Very Respectfully

A. L. Dickerson
